

I support media diversity

I've contacted my legislators and will continue to do so. If you cannot do your job of keeping ownership of America's airwaves from the hands of a few corporate giants, then I think they should cut your salaries from the budget. Do your job or work for free.